RE: Fulford v. City of New York, et al.

07 CIV 8247 (BSJ/RLE)

Dear Judge Ellis:

This firm represents Mary Fulford, plaintiff in the above referenced civil action. I write, with the consent of defense counsel Hugh A. Zuber, to request an adjournment of the preliminary conference presently scheduled for January 29, 2008. This is the first such request and do not believe this request will delay prosecution of this case. Ms. Fulford filed a complaint on September 21, 2007, challenging the actions of two, as yet unnamed defendant New York City police officers who assaulted and falsely arrested her on April 5, 2007.

Defense counsel Zuber, an Assistant Corporation Counsel of the New York City Law Department, represents the City of New York. The City filed an answer to the complaint on or about December 29, 2007.

I am requesting an adjournment because I will be on vacation from January 25 until February 4, 2008. If at all possible, I request this conference be re-scheduled for any day during the week of February 18, 2008. Mr. Zuber did not have any conflicts in his schedule in the near future.

Thank you for your considerations.

Sincerely,

Colleen M. Meenan
